A friendly reminder to everyone that the stall applications for the upcoming 2013 season at Hastings Racecourse are due today. The racing office is open for any questions (604) 216-5221. The stall applications can be faxed to the racing office at (604) 216-5228. The forms are available on the Hastings website. Some people have had trouble accessing the forms, but if you click on “Racing” that will bring down a few drop-down boxes. Click on the “Horsemen” box and that will bring up all the forms on the right hand side of the page. Do not open any of the boxes that appear when you have the cursor on “Horsemen”, just click directly on “Horsemen” and the 2013 stall application form will appear, along with other vaccination and compliance forms which must be filled out as well.

Two stallion auctions are closing next week, so don't miss out on a chance to get the stallion of your choice while supporting two worthy causes at the same time.
